

1st September 2014

Declaration of support for the principles of the European Commission's Recommendation "The European Charter for Researchers" and "the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers"

The Institute of Technology Tallaght (ITT Dublin) supports the principles outlined in the European Commission's initiative of 11 March 2005, "The European Charter for Researchers" and " the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers".

IT Tallaght welcomes the Charter and Code as a very progressive contribution to policy regarding researchers and a valuable initiative to develop attractive research careers on a translational basis. IT Tallaght is an equal opportunities employer and welcomes particularly the principles with regard to non-discrimination, fair and attractive conditions of funding. IT Tallaght has procedures in place for career development and continuing professional development of its researchers and is committed to the implementation of the Code and Charter within the Institute.

Yours sincerely,

Thomas Stone
President